

Exhibit 2

Merchandise Safety Requirements

FIRST® LEGO® League merchandise safety requirements

Type of merchandise	General requirements	Chemical requirements	Mechanical requirements
Apparel (T-shirts etc.)	Textile material must comply with ÖkoTex standards	Cadmium & lead pigments and azo dyes are not accepted	Straps are not to be used in either the neck or waist area
		The use of PVC and phthalates is not allowed for neither the printing on the product nor the packaging	No sharp points or edges on zippers or buttons are accepted
		No material which is known to cause allergy may be used
Office supplies (pens etc.)		Cadmium & lead pigments are not accepted	Pen/end caps must not be small parts*
		The use of PVC and phthalates is not allowed for neither the printing on the product nor the packaging
LEGO key-rings	Approved quality	Approved quality	Approved quality
Food contact material (drinking bottles, lunch boxes etc.)	Special requirements in different countries for test, documentation and in some countries even registration. Document stating compliance must be obtained from supplier		Small parts* are not allowed for mouth contact parts of the product
Coach pins	Only safety pin solutions are allowed	Cadmium & lead pigments are not accepted in neither substance nor coating (ink)
	Warning for accessible points must be applied ("Caution: Accessible functional point")	The use of PVC and phthalates is not allowed for neither the product, the printing nor the packaging

		No material, which is known to cause allergy may be used. Migration of nickel can be tested with a standard off-the-shelf nickel test.
Lanyards	Be aware of colour staining from sweat and saliva contact	Cadmium & lead pigments and azo dyes are not accepted	Safety lock to avoid strangulation
		The use of PVC and phthalates is not allowed for neither the printing on the product nor the packaging
		No material which is known to cause allergy may be used
Medals		Cadmium & lead pigments are not accepted in neither substance nor coating
		The use of PVC and phthalates is not allowed for neither the product, the printing nor the packaging
		No material, which is known to cause allergy may be used. Migration of nickel can be tested with a standard off-the-shelf nickel test.
Trophies (plexi-glass and LEGO models)	No requirements	No requirements	No requirements

Definition of smallparts:

* All parts that fit within the cylinder are considered small parts

